

Every man a Hero

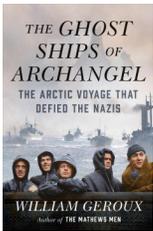

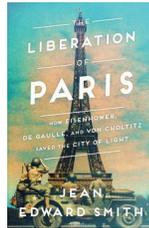

by Ray Lambert

A first-hand account of D-Day by a decorated Army medic describes how he landed with the first wave and saved dozens of his fellow soldiers on Omaha Beach.

The Liberation of Paris

by Jean Edward Smith

A dramatic story of the liberation of Paris during WWII, showing how the decision to free the city came at a heavy price - slowing the Allied momentum and allowing the Germans to regroup.

The Ghost Ships of Archangel

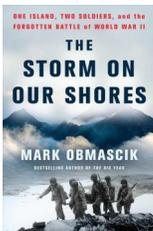

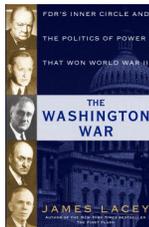

by William Geroux

The extraordinary journey of four Allied ships who, separated from their convoy, navigated a perilous maze of Arctic ice, Nazi bombers, and U-boats to deliver supplies to the Soviet war effort.

The Washington War

by Jim Lacey

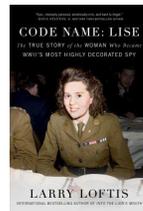

New insights into FDR's innermost circles and the fascinating behind-the-scenes machinations and power plays that won the greatest war in history.

The Storm on Our Shores

by Mark Obmascik

Traces how a World War II soldier's discoveries in a Japanese surgeon's diary helped change a war-torn America's perceptions of Japan.

Code name: Lise

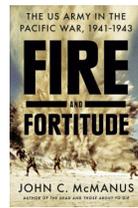

by Larry Loftis

The true story of Odette Sansom, the British spy who operated in occupied France and fell in love with her commanding officer.

A Woman of No Importance

by Sonia Purnell

The story of spy Virginia Hall and her pivotal role in coordinating Resistance activities in Europe that changed the course of WWII.

Fire and Fortitude

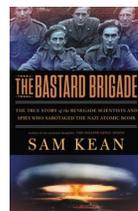

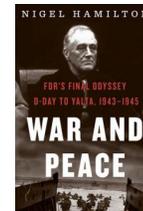

by John C. McManus

A chronicle of the U.S. Army's role in the Pacific during WWII offers insight into the military under the direction of leading generals.

War and Peace

by Nigel Hamilton

The terminally ill president championed the D-Day landings, but didn't live long enough to see the victorious peace he designed.

The Bastard Brigade

by Sam Kean

The story of how a renegade group of soldiers, scientists, and spies prevented Hitler from obtaining a nuclear bomb.

World War II History

New Titles Published 2018 & 2019

D-Day Girls

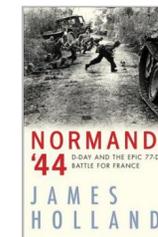

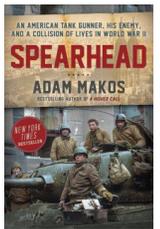

by Sarah Rose

The story of the extraordinary women recruited by Britain's elite spy agency to sabotage the Nazis and pave the way for victory during WWII.

Spearhead

by Adam Makos

The story of Clarence Smoyer, the gentle soldier behind the film footage of the iconic duel at the great cathedral in Cologne.

Normandy '44

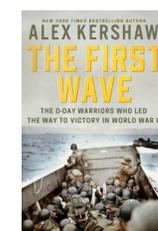

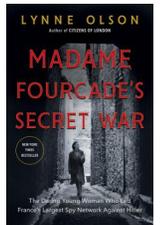

by James Holland

A new history of the momentous Normandy campaign with fresh insights from an award-winning historian.

Madame Fourcade's Secret War

by Lynne Olson

The true story of the woman who headed the largest spy network in occupied France during WWII.

The First Wave

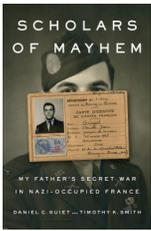

by Alex Kershaw

A chronicle documenting essential D-Day combat missions traces the historical roles of 10 major contributors.

LOUDOUN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY
Nurturing Minds

library.loudoun.gov

SCHOLARS OF MAYHEM

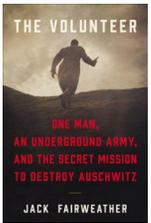

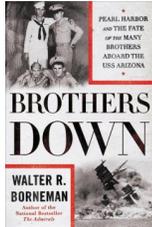

by Daniel Guet

Documents the wartime contributions of a CIA agent whose participation on a commando team behind German lines helped block Nazi tanks from Normandy after D-Day.

BROTHERS DOWN

by Walter R. Borneman

A deeply personal and never-before-told account of one of America's darkest events, the sinking of the USS Arizona during the Pearl Harbor attack.

THE VOLUNTEER

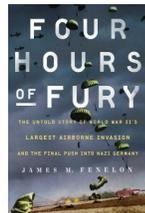

by Jack Fairweather

The story of an ill-fated Polish resistance fighter's infiltration of Auschwitz to sabotage the camp from within, and his daring escape to smuggle evidence of Nazi activities to Allied forces.

FOUR HOURS OF FURY

by James Fenelon

Chronicles World War II's largest airborne operation, describing how more than 17,000 paratroopers dropped into Nazi Germany, smashing the final defense line of Hitler's war machine.

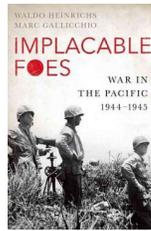

SUDDEN COURAGE

by Ronald C. Rosbottom

Describes the contributions of young adults to the French Resistance, revealing how teen revolutionaries acquired skills ranging from sabotage to intelligence smuggling.

intelligence smuggling.

IMPLACABLE FOES

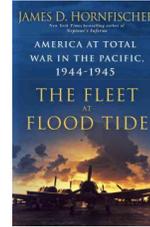

by Waldo H. Heinrichs

Examines the issues facing Allies in the last year of the war in the Pacific, and whether unconditional surrender was inevitable.

THE FLEET AT FLOOD TIDE

by James D. Hornfischer

An account of the monumental Pacific War campaign that brought the U.S. Navy to the apex of its power and established America as the dominant global superpower.

THE KAMIKAZE HUNTERS

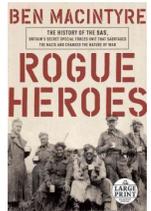

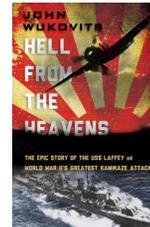

by Will Iredale

An extraordinary story of courage, valor, and dogged determination, the vivid account of how a few brave young pilots ensured lasting peace during World War II.

HELL FROM THE HEAVENS

by John F. Wukovits

Describes the courageous fight put up by the USS Laffey after they became the target of the largest single-ship kamikaze attack.

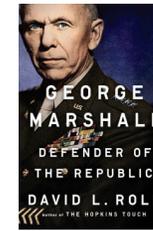

ROGUE HEROES

by Ben Macintyre

Presents the story of one of World War II's most significant secret military units, citing the contributions of brainchild David Stirling and fellow strategist Jock

Lewis and how they established a legacy that changed the nature of combat.

GEORGE MARSHALL : DEFENDER OF THE REPUBLIC

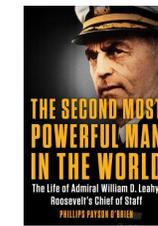

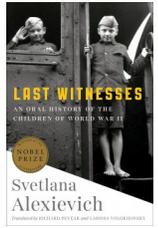

by David L. Roll

The story of the distinguished U.S. soldier and statesman, examining his role in influencing two world wars and America's emergence as a global superpower.

LAST WITNESSES

by Svetlana Aleksievich

An oral history of children's experiences in World War II across Europe and Russia, providing a kaleidoscopic portrait of the human consequences of the war.

THE SECOND MOST POWERFUL MAN IN THE WORLD

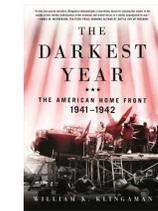

by Phillips Payson O'Brien

A portrait of Admiral William D. Leahy that explores his pivotal role in shaping administrative and military decisions during WWII.

DUTCH GIRL

by Robert Matzen

Describes Audrey Hepburn's five years in the Nazi-occupied Netherlands during World War II, discussing her parents' Nazi affiliations, her own involvement with the Dutch Resistance, and her burgeoning career as a ballerina.

THE DARKEST YEAR

by William K. Klingaman

A psychological history of the American home front at the peak of WWII argues that class and partisan divides rendered the U.S. vulnerable to losing the war.